"Set in Aligarh in the early 1960s, after the dust of Partition has ostensibly settled, Topi Shukla is a story of two friends - one Hindu and the other Muslim." "Through the characters of people like Topi and Iffan, the novel looks at the lives of ordinary people trying to survive in a society that insists on a brutal conformity of behaviour. It is about individuals whose spirits are paralysed because they cannot conform, and about history's inability to teach mankind any worthwhile lessons." "Language plays an important part in this narrative, operating almost as a character in its own right. Topi, as a Hindi bull in the Urdu china shop, invokes the historical stand-off between the two languages. The novel also explores the culture and psyche of Uttar Pradesh with its very Muslim Aligarh, its very Hindu Benares, and their exotic confluence in Lucknow."--BOOK JACKET. Nelson Mandela is one of the great moral and political leaders of our time: an international hero whose lifelong dedication to the fight against racial oppression in South Africa won him the Nobel Peace Prize and the presidency of his country. Since his triumphant release in 1990 from more than a quarter-century of imprisonment, Mandela has been at the center of the most compelling and inspiring political drama in the world. As president of the African National Congress and head of South Africa's anti-apartheid movement, he was instrumental in moving the nation toward multiracial government and majority rule. He is revered everywhere as a vital force in the fight for human rights and racial equality. LONG WALK TO FREEDOM is his moving and exhilarating autobiography, destined to take its place among the finest memoirs of history's greatest figures. Here for the first time, Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela tells the extraordinary story of his life--an epic of struggle, setback, renewed hope, and ultimate triumph. Everyone tells her how beautiful she is, but she doesn't feel as beautiful as the faces she sees on TV and in the magazines. This captivating story for young children provides a message of empowerment and acceptance that readers of all ages can understand and enjoy. It is a general, non-academic and leisure read of a book, yet very thought provoking and meant for someone who already has some experience of public speaking. The book is mainly intended for people aspiring to speak in public fluently and confidently in whichever language they choose. For instance, if one wishes to speak in English, a thorough knowledge and good command over the language is a must and is the first and foremost criterion. Besides this, pronunciation of words, voice quality, pause between the sentences, etc are also some of the salient criteria that must be learnt, imbibed and mastered in order to be an impressive and good Public Speaker. This book basically discusses about these vital qualities in detail and aims to develop your self-confidence, remove your hesitation or fright, if any and bring out the real Pub Spartan in you! For many kids with physical disabilities and challenges, the barriers they face go beyond what they can and can't do with their bodies. Loaded with tools for coping with the intense social, emotional, and academic difficulties these students often must deal with—as well as their secret fears—this book helps kids succeed in and out of the classroom and confidently handle their physical challenges. Friendly illustrations, think-about-it prompts, true-to-life stories gathered from the authors' decades of experience, and specific tips and advice provide comfort, hope, and supportive guidance. The author seeks to take the reader on a slow roller coaster ride down memory lane, halting en route at the stations of childhood, youth and adulthood. He makes the reader visit the mind of an impressionable child who can be distraught over a trivial looking matter, a youth stuck in a demanding situation, a doctor's doubts and redemption, a distressed parent, a responsible citizen and so on, all in different stories. He shares his thoughts over various issues very subtly and invites the readers to search their minds for their own stance on the same. He reminisces about a gifted classmate, muses over life, shares his misadventure as a child and then some more. He has tried to put different colors from his palette on different canvasses in a collection which promises to keep you interested through delicate twists and the occasional surprise. In this innovative guide, master art instructor William Maughan demonstrates how to create a realistic human likeness by using the classic and highly accurate modeling technique of chiaroscuro (Italian for "light and dark") developed by Leonardo da Vinci during the High Renaissance. Maughan first introduces readers to the basics of this centuries-old technique, showing how to analyze form, light, and shadow; use dark pencil, white pencil, and toned paper to create a full range of values; use the elements of design to enhance a likeness; and capture a sitter's gestures and proportions. He then demonstrates, step by step, how to draw each facial feature, develop visual awareness, and render the head in color with soft pastels.
